THIRTY YEARS ago, in April 1988, Bernard Atherley and George Clarke took the bold step of founding A & C Security Services. These two men co-founded the company and served as its first two employees, working with a single contract which required them to provide security services for "Shell Spring Garden".

Initially, the company was located upstairs Lorde's Court on Roebuck Street in Bridgetown, however as the company grew, its operations were relocated in 2006 to the current location at Barbarees Hill, St Michael.

Today, the company employs 185 people and its 45 contracts include schools, businesses, small enterprises, a major financial institution and leading commercial stores and petroleum enterprises.

A WIDE range of professional security services are offered by the highly trained and skilled team at A & C Security Services. These services are:

- Manned Security

Trained and professional security officers, ranging from junior to senior ranks, are provided. They are stationed to prevent unauthorized access, theft of valuables and to protect individuals from injury.

- Electronic Security

A & C Security Services partners with Secure One Security Inc. to provide:

- Fire alarms
- Burglar alarms
- Access Control with recorded time and attendance (coded entry locks, electronic gates and barriers, proximity cards, tokens logging system, finger print entry)
- Closed Circuit Television
- Guard tour systems (patrol monitoring)
- Article Surveillance (retail stores)
- Medical systems (panic systems)
- Central Monitoring Station Services

Keeping you secure
