

Joining the team

JACQUELINE CUMBERBATCH being rewarded for more than 20 years of service at A & C Security Services. (GP)

GEORGE CLARKE, co-founder of A & C Security Services, being presented with the Founding Members Award by current managing director, Janelle Simmons. (GP)

EULINE DOWNES receiving an award for over 15 years at A & C Security Services. (GP)

THE SUCCESS of A & C Security Services over the past 30 years does not rest in its solid foundation and good management alone; the team of high trained professionals who function in the role of security officers, have helped the company to grow and ensured its continued success.

At present, it is possible for persons who wish to pursue a career as a security guard, to become a part of the hardworking and dedicated team at A & C Security Services.

To seize this employment opportunity, at least two CXC certificates, a recent Police Certificate of Character and a valid Security License are required. Application forms can be collected from the office in Barbarees Hill on Mondays to Fridays between 8:00AM and 5:00PM daily. The completed form should be returned with the following documents:

- Valid form of identification
- National Insurance (NIS) Card
- Copies of all certifications
- Recent Police Certificate of Character;
- Four recent passport sized photographs
- Valid Security License

Note that non-nationals are also invited to apply with the requisite work permits. All shortlisted candidates will be required to undertake a week of training sessions as it relates to customer service, the laws of Barbados, security protocols, report writing and the employee manual.
